VICTIMS

Palestinian refugees "Fares Jakhlab" was tortured to death in the prisons of the Syrian regime after being arrested for around five years, Jakhlab used to live in Al-Raml Camp in Latakia.

This incident brings the toll of Palestinian refugees who have been tortured to death in Syrian prisons to 434, while Syrian security is still reticent on the fate of Palestinian prisoners.

RECENT UPDATES

Activists confirmed that the regime's army and security forces committed double crime by shooting Palestinian pro-regime fighters from behind, explaining that many young Palestinians joint pro-regime fighting groups, but could not protect their own lives from what could be described as "betrayal".

The activists reported that many Palestinian refugees from Khan Dannoun Camp in Damascus Countryside, were conscripted in the military "Fourth Band" but refrained very soon and handed over their weapons after it became clear to them that most of their fellow Palestinian conscripts were killed by "friendly fire" from behind.

It is noteworthy that, the Fourth Band is considered one of the most important military bands of the regime's army, which does not, usually, conscript Palestinians. But during the current conflict; Palestinians were conscripted in affiliated sub-groups formed for that purpose. The same policy was adopted by the "Republican Guard" forces.

It is noteworthy that the AGPS has documented 714 victims of Palestinian refugees killed during participation in the Syrian conflict.

Turning to Lebanon, where the PRS in Lebanon Committee, in cooperation with Insani Centre, honoured on Monday 29 February 2016, the two students "Aseel Hassan", first place winner of PRS students in Lebanon, and "Riham Mando" from Homs City, also a first place winner in the eighth grade at the centre in Sidon City.

It is noteworthy that the Palestinian students displaced from Syria to Lebanon face great difficulties regarding the Lebanese curriculum, which depends mainly on foreign language teaching in contrast to the Syrian curriculum.

In a different context, the Rescue Centre declared that, a boat believed to be carrying Palestinian immigrants coming from the shores of Izmir, heading to the Greek Mitelina Island, suffered a puncture caused by the collision with rocks in the Aegean Sea, which put high risks on their lives.

This coincides with the non-stop arriving boats carrying Palestinian refugees fleeing the Syrian war to Greece and to western Europe countries next.

It should be noted that hundreds of Palestinian refugees waiting in line to cross into European countries either by sea or by land, noting that more than 71,200 PRS arrived to Europe until the end of December 2015.

In turn, Monitoring and Documentation Team of the AGPS confirmed documenting 446 PRS females killed during the war in Syria.

According the AGPS statistics; 75 females are still under arrest at the branches of the Syrian security.
