Recent Updates

More than 600 days of the strict siege imposed on the Yarmouk camp by the Syrian Regular Army and PFGC groups that besiege 20,000 civilians in the Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus causing various health and living crises.

All hospitals and clinics stopped working except for Palestine hospital which provides simple medical services, the stop resulted in the acute shortage of medical staff and materials due to the siege, 683 days of power cut, and 173 days of water cut, in addition to the scarcity of fuel that is required to operate the generators.

In terms of living aspect, there are any main food supplies inside the camp; such as bread and rice and others, and in case small quantities is available by the greedy merchants, the one kilo of rice may reach 50$. It is also mentioned that the regime and the PF checkpoints prevent the entry of urgent relief aid that was produced by some international organizations between now and then, three months ago.

In light of this tragic reality, the number of victims' siege, that was documented by the AGPS, still increasing till yesterday to reach 171 victims, the last one was the 20-day-enfant "Mohammed Jameil Al Assar who died yesterday due to the lack of medical care and the malnutrition inside the besieged camp.

On the other hand, the Syrian security forces at Homs still detaining three women and a young girl from Al Aedein camp in Homs after taking them as hostages to negotiate with relatives until they surrender themselves during a recent raid on the camp on 25th of last February.

Despite the fact that their relative and the young men who were with him had surrendered to the Syrian security who executed all of them after hours of being detained, and continues detaining the women till now, while their fate is still unknown until this moment.

The place of the clashes in Al Aedein camp in Homs

It is noteworthy that the Syrian news agency of the Syrian regime published images of Palestinian refugees Wisam Al Sayed, Rami Subhia, Ahmed Al Saa'by, and Abdul RazakAmayri, who were executed in spite of being surrender to Syrian security authorities that carried out wide raid campaign at Al Aedein camp in Homs.

According to a previous testimony by one of the residents that the Syrian Security arrested Ramy Sabheyya, Wesam Al Sayyed, Ahmed Al Shabi and Abdel RaziqAmayeri after they were threatened with their families where they surrendered to the Syrian Security under the condition of not harming their families.

It is mentioned that the four refugees were amongst the residents who settled their positions in the camp 3 months ago within the agreement between the Syrian Security and the Militants and the Palestinian factions in the camp were the mediators in this agreement but the Syrian Security raided their houses and arrested them after they surrendered and executed them.

In a related context, the Syrian Security released the young man Mahmoud Khalid Mahmoud Shatara from Tarshiha village in Palestine. It is mentioned that Al Aedin camp in Homs witnesses security tensions due to the last raid that were carried out by the Syrian Security in the Camp.

The Vicinity of Khan Al Shieh camp in Damascus Suburb was exposed to explosive barrels yesterday that targeted the surrounding farms whioch led to the spread of worry and fear state in the camp due to it was close to the residents' houses. The roads that connect the camp with the city center are still closed except for Zakia Khan Al Shieh road.

In Germany, the Palestine League in Germany concluded the seminar activities of the Palestinians of Syria ...Nakba Renews Nakba. The seminar came to shed light on the humanitarian crises file of the Palestinians of Syria. The seminar was attended by the Palestinian and Arab organizations in Berlin and a number of the Palestine and Arab Communities in Germany.
