*On other hand, number of activists called via social networks to work on releasing the activist and the photographer "Neraz Saeed" from Al-Yarmouk refugee camp in Damascus, who has been detained in Syrian regime's prisons for 6 months. Others questioned about the timing of this arrest and the reasons for delaying exit from Damascus as he was supposed to leave at the same date with another group of activists from Al-Yarmouk camp, but to a different destination, his trip has been postponed for unknown reasons before he got arrested later with no information regarding his fate and place of detention.
