Female Detainees

The AGPS documentation team announced that the number of Palestinian female detainees in the prisons of the Syrian regime since the beginning of the ongoing war in Syria till the moment of preparing this report has reached (52) Palestinian female refugees.

The female detainees included 15 from Damascus suburb, 13 from Damascus, 4 from Homs, and 20 from different areas in Syria, while the AGPS documented the names of 37 Palestinian female refugees were lost inside Syrian territory and abroad.

The AGPS confirmed that there are female detainees in each Palestinian camp in Syria; most of them were arrested at checkpoints on gates and entrances of the camps and cities. The documentation team reported that: "Some detainees are University students or activists; on January 6, 2013, the Architecture student "S-A" was arrested by members of the checkpoint at the entrance of Yarmouk, while the other student "S-A" was also arrested on Augustus 9, 2013, from the University campus in the city of Homs, where she was arrested for about two weeks.

Syrian security services arrested three female refugees from Al Aedein camp in Homs while trying to break into the house of Al Sayed family, where militants are hiding, in order to pressure, and push them to surrender, despite the wanted refugees surrender in exchange for not hurting their families and to release female detainees.

Evidence suggests that the number of female detainees to the conflict parties is greater than this number, but it is secrecy for special reasons related to those cases.

It was mentioned that Palestinian women in Syria had been arrested, kidnapped, killed, and being disability, as a result of the ongoing conflict in Syria since the outbreak of fighting there in March 2011 between the Syrian crisis parties.

Recent Updates

Residents of Al Aedein camp in Homs suffer of difficulties and obstacles in communication with their relatives after that the Syrian security set up an iron fence separates neighborhoods of the camp in Homs and the western side of the university campus and housing, and neighborhoods of Al Waleed, Ikrema, Wadi Al Thahabin the eastern region, starting from Al Sham road-Tadmor crossing till Al Timthal crossing at the bridge conjunction and Hadara Street without any service corridors between the two sides.

Residents became forced to go through the south across Tadmor crossing in order to return to Al Sham Road, which doubled transport costs especially on students and employees, and residents who have a review with UNRWA clinic and Bisan hospital.

The iron fence negatively impacted on shopkeepers in the eastern neighborhoods because they have lost all their clients from the western side.

In terms of the reasons of building such fence, our correspondent noted that the security reason is to ensure the protection of neighborhoods of the pro-regime eastern region.

The Action Group for Palestinians of Syria

The AGPS issued the English version of the report "Yarmouk Camp, the Full Truth" this morning.

This research monitors the most important events suffered by the Yarmouk refugee camp, for being the largest Palestinian refugee camp, from March 2011 till the end of May 2015 through three main sections which dealt with the evolution of the Yarmouk crisis through two major phases. The first phase is before 16th of December 2012; the date of targeting the camp with 'MIG' warplanes and the second phase is post-December 17, 2012; the date of the Yarmouk population displacement.

In addition, the research highlighted the Yarmouk refugee camp in terms of location, foundation, and strategic importance for Damascus and its suburbs, as well as the numbers of victims of the Yarmouk refugee camp since the beginning of events in Syria until the end of last May. The research addressed the beginnings of forming civil committees for the Defense of Yarmouk camp, which was between rejection and acceptance by residents and some Palestinian factions, and explained how armed battalions entered Yarmouk.

The 60-page-report talked about total and partial siege imposed on the Yarmouk camp by the regular army and the Palestinian factions, and its implications and negative effects on the camp's residents, where it focused on the initiatives of lifting the Yarmouk siege.

The report allocated a special section for ISIS control over Yarmouk, causes, motives, and results, and the accompanied violations, and international, regional, and Palestinian responses.

In conclusion, the report came out with several conclusions and recommendations; the most important is: lifting the siege, return of residents, and providing protection to refugees as stipulated in international conventions and the Universal Charter of Human Rights.

It is noteworthy that this search was based on field reports that were documented by the Action Group for Palestinians of Syria through its correspondents' network in the Palestinian camps and compounds.
