The Action Group indicated that the victims who died in December 2017, were distributed across the following areas: 8 refugees in Hama, 2 refugees died in unknown areas, 2 in Deir ez-Zour, one in Deraa and another in Idlib.

Meanwhile, the Action Group noted that the 15 victims of December 2016, died across the Syrian cities as follows: 4 refugees died in the suburbs of Damascus, 4 in Homs, 4 in different areas, one in Aleppo, a refugee in Damascus and the last in Deir ez-Zour.

In south Syria, Deraa camp for Palestinian refugees was bombarded with a number of mortar shells, causing material destruction only.

The residents of Deraa camp, in which 80% of its buildings are destroyed, and the Sad Road neighborhood, are still complaining of harsh humanitarian conditions, due to siege imposed the regime's army on the camp and the areas adjacent to it. They are also suffering from an extreme lack of food supplies, as well as the continuous water, electricity and communication cuts for long periods of time.

In a similar context, the Tadamon neighborhood and the outskirts of Yarmouk camp (Palestine Street and the Martyrs sector), have been violently bombarded with gas cylinders, causing material destruction and damages to the residents' houses.

Meanwhile, Yarmouk camp and the Tadamon neighborhood have seen a sharp escalation in the intensity of fighting and bombardments, after ISIS launched a surprise attack on the Syrian regime's checkpoint in the Nisreen neighborhoods, on 11th of December, and took control over a number of building blocks in the neighborhood.

In the meantime, six members of ISIS and three civilians, left through the Maamal Bardy checkpoint, after coordinating with the regime. Among those who left was "Bassel Ghabsh," known as the Sarot, and "Zayed Al-Ashqar" and Osama, known as Al-Ashqar.

According to the sources in south Damascus, the nine members will enter Idlib. The exit of at least five members of ISIS was confirmed a few days ago, with the company of a civilian, through the Maamal Bardy checkpoint, in coordination with the Syrian regime in return for money, according to our correspondent in the south of Damascus.
