AGPS kept record of the death of 459 Palestinian refugees under torture in Syrian regime penal complexes.

Meanwhile, Palestinian resident of Aleppo-based AlNeirab Camp Mohamed Emad Moussa, died as he fought alongside the pro-government AlQuds Brigade in AlRashideen, west of Aleppo.

Around 500 fighters, out of a total of 3,500 conscripts enlisted at the non-Palestinian Liwa AlQuds Brigade, have been identified as Palestinians who previously sought refuge in such shelters as AlNeirab, Handarat, and AlRaml. Fighters from Aleppo city and its northern and western suburbs, along with so-called Shabab AlAswad combatants, have also been fighting alongside the AlNeirab-headquartered AlQuds battalion.

In another development, a report issued by AGPS under the title “The Wasted Lives” documented the violations endured by Palestinian women in war-tattered Syria since the outburst of the conflict in March 2011.

According to the report, which was issued on the eve of the International Women’s Day, marked annually on March 8, Palestinian women have been subjected to abrupt searches and exhaustive questionings at military checkpoints.

Up to the moment of writing, AGPS kept account of the arrest of 94 Palestinian women sheltered in refugee camps across the embattled Syrian territories.

33 female detainees were released from Syrian lock-ups, four among whom freed as part of a swap deal struck between the regime army and the Free Syrian Army.

Meanwhile, 61 Palestinian girls and women have had mysterious fates in Syrian penitentiaries.
