Recent Updates

The warplanes targeted the farms near Khan Al Sheih camp with many of explosive barrels which led to the spread of tension state amongst the residents especially after the camp was exposed to frequent explosive barrels bombing during the last days. On the other hand, our correspondent from inside the camp mentioned that the electricity returned back to the camp after it was cut for a whole day and insured that the mobile network, landline and the internet service works in good way inside the camp. In terms of relief aspect, the Palestine Charity Commission distributed yesterday the sacrificial meat on all the camps residents including the displaced refugees who came from the surrounding Palestinian camps and areas.

The Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus was exposed to heavy bombing that targeted Al Reeja Square and the main street yesterday which resulted in material damages in the residents' properties. In a related context, the old woman Fattoum Qada bashi was injured by a sniper in her hand while UNRWA was distributing food aids on the camp which is besieged for more than 15 months. The water cut on the houses of the camp continues for about a month in addition to the power cut for more than a year and a half.

In Aleppo, heavy clashes broke out in the suburbs of Handarat camp for Palestinian refugees between the Opposition and the Regular army with the affiliated Palestinian factions to the Regular Army, where the Regular Army seeks to close the road on the Opposition to prevent it to enter Aleppo center and the areas that the Army controls. Moreover, the Opposition groups seek to maintain their control on Handarat camp and the surrounding areas due to the strategic importance of these areas. Handarat camp witnessed, in the last few days, direct clashes between the two parties after the Regular army moved towards the camp before the coming of the reinforcements that led to the withdrawal of the Regular Army. It is referred that 20000 live in Handarat camp from the Palestinians of Syria refugees, the residents left the camp on 27th of April 2013 because of the frequent bombing and clashes where they were displaced, their properties were stolen, their houses were bombed and damaged and many of the camp's residents were killed and injured.

In Lebanon, the Lebanese authorities prevented the son of the dead man Abu Ali Ramadan to enter Lebanon to receive his father's corpse to bury it due to the procedures that were taken to limit the entry of the Palestinians of Syria refugees to Lebanon, where it imposes determined conditions on the Palestinians from Syria which are not applied on most of them. It is noted that Hajj Abu Ali Ramadan is a Palestinian Syrian refugee displaced to Lebanon and his corpse is in Baa'bda hospital since 11 days. It is referred that 44000 Palestinians of Syria refugees in Lebanon suffer of a miserable legal, education and health conditions.
