Khan Al Shieh Camp

Explosive barrels targeted Khan Al Shieh camp in Damascus suburb at dawn today, where one of them fell on the eastern neighborhood of the camp, which led to a large number of injuries, at least one victim, and damage to buildings and property,

It is worth mentioning that the camp and its surroundings are being subjected to frequent shelling, which intensified in the past few days, coinciding with the continuation of the regular army to close all roads linking the camp and the center of the capital, Damascus, except for "Zakya - Khan Al Shieh."

Victims

The PFGC member, Mr. Mahmoud Fantazeih, died during clashes that broke out before yesterday at Al Thalathein Street and the Yarmouk Court vicinity between the Regular Army alongside the Palestinian groups and ISIS groups.

Recent Updates

Residents of Deraa camp south of Syria complain from the absence of any hospital or medical center, and from a severe lack of medicines, first aid materials, and medical equipment.

In addition, ambulances that transport the injuries to receive medical treatment outside the camp are not available, where the Syrian regular army snipers impede the arrival of ambulances to the camp. In case residents managed to transfer one of the patients outside the camp trying to treat him in Jordan, the latter refuse the entry of any Palestinian refugees from Syria even injuries.

Accordingly, some of them were forced to enter Jordan as a Syrian citizen for treatment, moreover, a number of activists inside the camp warned of the spread of diseases among residents in light of having to use contaminated drinking water, due to the cut of drinking water for around 423days.

The repeated shelling and clashes taking place in Deraa camp since the beginning of the ongoing war, according to unofficial statistics, caused the destruction of about 70% of its buildings.

The remaining refugees live in very serious humanitarian situations, as the suffering was not limited to the health side, but exceeded the standard of living, as power outages for long periods of up to several days has doubled their suffering.

In addition to the non-availability of fuels and heating materials, the loss of many varieties of food, the high prices of other materials dramatically, making hundreds of Palestinian families to leave the camp and go to the neighboring towns.

In the same context, the suffering of Palestinian refugees who fled from Handarat camp 780 days ago is still continue, where they were displaced from their homes after the Syrian armed opposition controlled the camp.

residents of the camp facing difficult living conditions caused by the case of displacement, the continuing war in Syria, and the implications on the economic situation, which in turn led to the weakness of financial resources and the spread of unemployment.

The AGPS has documented the names of 59 victims from Handarat camp, as well as 32 detainees in Syrian prisons.

However, Hndarat camp and adjacent areas are still subjected to bombed and violent clashes between the Syrian armed opposition groups and the regular army alongside a group of al-Quds Brigade, where the regular army is trying to impose its control over the camp, which is a strategic point for him, while opposition groups seek to advance towards the town of Handarat and the central prison of Aleppo.

In Homs, Syrian security forces released three residents of Al Aedein camp; they are: "Marwan Ali Ghareb," after being detained for more than a year in the central prison in Homs, "Amer Talib Darwish," in his forties, originally from Al Shajara village in Palestine, and "Mustafa Al Rouba," who was arrested for more than three months, in his thirties, and originally Safed city in Palestine.

The Action Group for Palestinians of Syria

The AGPS launched the trial version of the "Action Group" application for smartphones, while the application is allocated for publishing the AGPS news and statistics related to the Palestinians of Syria.

Through its application, the group aims to develop human rights and media institutions, researchers, activists, and observers of the

Palestinians of Syria issues, with the latest developments as soon as they occur.

The application also provides loading the daily report for the situation of Palestinian Syrian refugees which monitors the situation of Palestinian Syrian refugees, in addition to access to daily summary, latest news, reports, and articles.

The application also shows latest statistics for victims, detainees, and missing persons from the Palestinians of Syria, as well as it provides access to the Group archive of special reports, press releases, photographs, and videos.

Moreover, it allows the activists and Palestinian refugees to connect with the AGPS in order to report events, violations, victims, detainees, or missing.
