Victims

The young man "Samer al-Khatib" died due to wounds he sustained by the Syrian army shelling of the Yarmouk refugee camp, earlier, note that he is one of Al-Aqsa Charity Organization members, bringing the shelling victims' toll to 986 Palestinian victims who were documented by the AGPS.

Samer al-Khatib

The AGPS received news about the death of "Ahmed AwadHilal" from Al Husseneia camp and displaced to Khan Dannon camp, note that "Hilal" is a member of the armed National Defense Committees of the Syrian Army Forces and the Syrian Security bodies.

It is noteworthy that many of the camp residents have joined the troops and factions that are loyal and fighting alongside with the Syrian army, and engaged in the siege of the Palestinian refugee camps and cooperating with the Syrian security services in the pursuit of the camps' residents, including the PFLP-GC, Fatah al-Intifada, Commandos, and special committees directly follow the Syrian security bodies.

Recent Updates

Three Palestinian refugees were targeted yesterday, while waiting for aids, which was supposed to be distributed after five weeks suspension, as two women and a young man were injured while standing among a group of people of Yarmouk in the middle of the main Yarmouk Street. Meanwhile, the residents expressed, to our correspondent, their discontent about the repeated scenario of failing the distribution of aid, while some residents accused the members of the Syrian army and the GC groups of sniping people during the aids entry. In turn, the Syrian Army accused the armed opposition groups in the Yarmouk refugee camp of responsibility for the shooting.

A woman injured during the distribution of aid

Within the recriminations, the siege imposed by the regular army and PFGC groups about year and a half ago, that killed 160 refugees due to the lack of nutrition and health care, is still continue.

On the other hand, the Palestinian camps in Syria are witnessing a raise in the campaigns pace by the security bodies and the Syrian army forces, especially in the places that are controlled by the army forces.

Al Aedein camp at Homs, which 135 detainees of his residents were arrested by the Syrian security bodies, according to the AGPS statistics, it become more vulnerable and targeted than ever before, after the escalation of events, and after the control of the Syrian army and committees loyal to it all the camp, while several arrests affected the youth of the camp during the past few days.

The Syrian security forces arrested the member of governing body of the Palestine Students Union " Salim Mohammed Sadiq", after a fight in the Union's headquarters of Al Baath University about the conflict about taking the Union responsibility. He is in his thirties, originally from Safed city in Palestine.

Security forces also arrested the young man "Mohamed Ibrahim Hujayr" Abu Ibrahim, and led him to unknown destination, and did not know the background of the arrest, he is in the forties, originally from Tirat Haifa village in Palestine.

"Rami Mohammed Rifai," was also released after being arrested for a day, and the young man "Moayad Riad Awad," two days after his arrest.

The Syrian security forces arrested, three days ago, at Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus suburb, the Young man "Tariq Mohammed Raja", and "Ibrahim Idreis" at "First Group" checkpoint at Al Kiswa area, bringing the detainees toll to 55 detainees were documented by the AGPS since the beginning of the war events.

On the other hand, UNRWA has announced its intension to start the financial aids at the Palestinian residents of Al Nairab camp in Aleppo, the financial aids, estimated with 12,000 SL per person, will be distributed within the next week.

It is mentioned that the Palestinian refugees at Aleppo are suffering of severe living crises, most prominent is the unemployment spread, as most of them have lost their jobs due to the security situation tension.

In Lebanon, dozens of Palestinian Syrian families sit-in, on Thursday, in front of the UNRWA office at Al Bidawi camp, to protest on the suspension of aids to about 1100 families. The protestors also condemned the UNRWA delay of winter aid distribution to refugees who have exacerbated their suffering because of the low temperature that affected the area.

The refugees demanded "UNRWA" to assume its responsibilities towards them considering it as the only international body responsible for them in Lebanon and Syria; it is worth mentioning that more than 44,000 Palestinian Syrian refugees fled to Lebanon to escape the war in Syria.

The UNRWA office in Al Bidawi camp

As in Greece, Cypriot authorities officially noticed the Palestinian and the Syrian refugees, who are living in "Burnara" camp, to leave the camp on Friday 16/01/2015.

This came in a letter signed by Chairman of Burnara camp, Dr. John Avlonettis, Under the title "last alarm" directed to the residents in the camp, the warning included 5 points:

- 1. The last day of the camp is Friday 16/01/2015 and specifically at 3:00 pm.*
- 2. Everyone must complete his\her asylum or temporary residency procedures.*
- 3. Those who applied asylum transactions to be transferred to Kufino camp on Friday 16/01/2015.*
- 4. The deadline for those who have applied to temporary residency transactions to stay in the camp, 16/01/2015.*
- 5. Those who did not apply any action are to leave the camp on Friday morning 16/01/2015.*

It is noteworthy that about 240 Palestinian refugees, who were on a ship board heading to Italy before the Cypriot navy forced them to take them to their territory, to be transferred to a refugee camp and they lived in difficult humanitarian conditions, while they refused to submit to resort in Cyprus because of the hard asylum in Cyprus, but under the threat to cut aid and fear of being homeless in the streets of Cyprus some of them applied for asylum and the others refused to apply for asylum in Cyprus. It is noted that they have had a set of sit-ins in front of international and humanitarian institutions and sent letters to the Embassy of the Palestinian Authority but without a result of deporting them to the neighboring European countries of asylum.
