Recent Updates

People of Al Adeen Camp in Aleppo live in horror and tension because of the daily raids by Syrian Security Forces. The AGPS reporter confirmed that Political and Military Forces raided many houses during the last few days, where the military security forces and political security forces raided a rented house which belongs to the refugee (Asa'd Morad-Abo Naif) without knowing the reason.

The raid was while the students were leaving their schools and the raid contained a number of security cars accompanied with the spread of Syrian Security members, while fear and tension was spread among the students and residents. They also raided the Western and Southern neighborhoods where the forces inspected every single house, floor and even the roofs. There were about 70 members accompanied with the Refugees Organization Department presented by its manager and continued for about three hours without figuring out the reasons.

Palestinian activists believe that the Syrian Security Services are following a systematic displacement toward the residents of AL Aedin camp for Palestinian refugees in Homs through inspection, raids, and detention campaigns carried out by the Syrian Security detachment in the streets of the camp specially Al-Quds Street and the vegetable Market) which forced most people to stay at home in order not to go to universities and institutions for fear of the security members to tear their military postponement.

Moving to Damascus Western Suburb, Syrian warplanes targeted the surrounding farms of Khan Al Shieh camp yesterday with 6 explosive barrels, as the shrapnel fell down at the surrounding houses in the camp. Meanwhile, a state of panic spread among residents for fear of being targeted.

The APGS monitoring and documentation team reported that about 152 victims from Khan Al Shieh camp were killed since the beginning of the war events, while 94 of them died inside the camp.

It is noteworthy that the regular army continues targeting the only way for the people of Khan Al Shieh camp in Damascus western suburb with heavy weapons, where many residents did while passing through it. Zakia Khan Al Shieh road is considered the only road that provides residents with supplies and essential needs, noting that all roads leading to the camp are closed.

On the other hand, activists reported news to the AGPS of forming a new Palestinian armed faction called "Galilee forces," the military wing of Shabab Al Awda Group led by a displaced young man from khan Dannun camp, Fadi Al Malah, and his deputy Abu Ali Badran, pointing out that the movement, which was founded on May 15, 2011, is working to attract young people from khan dannun camp in particular and other camps controlled by the Syrian Regime in general.

The new faction attracts young people by big sums of money as a part of a campaign they called (Al Wafaa Bel Wafaa) in order to attach them in its military wing to fight alongside the regular army forces.

These forces have participated in several battles with the Syrian regime, most notably Talat Mousa and Al Talaha battle, and the storm of Talat Al Blokoshat and Talat Al Khasheaa in Al Lathakeia city, which resulted in the injury of many residents of khan Dannun in this battle, including Abu Ali Badran. A number of Palestinian factions and armed formations are fighting alongside the Syrian regime.

The Charity Commission for the Relief of Palestinian people, under its relief project "Our people are our responsibility," distributed new clothes to a number of Palestinian families in Damascus. According the campaign's organizers, 50 Palestinian families have benefited from the aid, which included (bag of new clothes, and blankets). the Charity Commission has launched relief project "our people are our responsibility" on 21 / April in order to alleviate the suffering of the Palestinian refugees, and to alleviate their economic burdens resulting from displacement from their camps and communities due to the ongoing conflict in Syria

In the meantime, the Socio-cultural Society "Nashit" and Albasma Club Basma organized a sit-in at Ain al-Hilweh refugee camp in Sidon, southern Lebanon to show solidarity with the people of the Yarmouk refugee camp, in the presence of representatives of Palestinian factions and the Palestinians of Syria Committee, in addition to a crowd of displaced Palestinians from Syria to Lebanon. The protestors called for saving the Yarmouk refugee camp, expel of ISIS, and the return of its residents.

It is worth mentioning that the number of Palestinians of Syria, who have taken refuge in Lebanon after the war in Syria, estimated at "42.5" thousand refugees, according to UNRWA earlier statistics.

monitoring and documentation team at the working group pointed out, it has been documented (3212), a victim of Palestinian refugees Syrians have died from different places in Syria, where he witnessed the Yarmouk refugee camp south of the capital Damascus, and his sons, the biggest casualty rates, it has been documented (1261), the victim, followed by the children of the camp Dara southern Syria, where he was documenting the fall (234) victim, then Khan Sheikh camp in Rural Damascus where he fell 152 victims of the population, then Neirab in Aleppo where he has documented 136 victims of his sons, then Hosseinieh camp and fell from his children (115) victims, as has been documented (171) victim of unknown residence, and (in 1143) than the rest of gatherings, camps and areas in Syria.
