Recent Updates

A Serbian newspaper published a report about accusations against "Mohammed Nabhan", the Palestinian Ambassador in Serbia, for selling visas for immigrants to enter Serbia and then to Europe for 5,000 Euros, exploiting the good relationship between Serbia and the authority.

In details, 125 visas were granted during the first half of this year and the amount that had been levied is estimated at about (800,000 Euros) while the newspaper pointed out that investigations are ongoing to determine the details of this crime.

The newspaper added that the ambassador is dealing with only VIP customers; in addition, the newspaper attributed the reason beyond not revealing the secret is that the ambassador's partner in this crime is the owner of butcher shop Moussa Al- Bawaab.

According to the newspaper, the Palestinian ambassador in Serbia was revealed in another scandal shortly when he was smuggling antiques and gifts to the Palestinian president and his family to decorate their palaces in the Jordanian capital Amman.

From his part, the Palestinian ambassador in Serbia (Mohammed Nabhan) denied, through his account on Facebook, all charges ensuring the untruthfulness of the news published by the Serbian newspaper in which he described as "the yellow papers," and "scandals newspaper".

He also added that "the ownership of this newspaper relates to ringer axel Springer Company located in Zurich, Switzerland, known as Media and public relations Company within the Zionist lobby in Europe, according to him.

On the other hand, the regular army targeted the Yarmouk camp with a number of mortal shells and machine guns leaving no injuries, while violent clashes broke out between Palestinian armed groups on one hand and ISIS and Al-Nusra Front on the other hand.

Confrontations centered in the court area and Rija yard, coincided with the bombing of the camp with a number of mortar shells and machine guns, with no injuries.

ISIS continues imposing its control over 60% of the Yarmouk camp neighborhoods and lanes, while the Syrian regular army and the Popular Front - General Command groups continue imposing a tight siege on the Yarmouk camp for 876 days respectively.

In Damascus suburb, warplanes launched six air raids on farms and areas surrounding Khan Al- Shieh camp coincided with clashes between Syrian opposition groups and the regular army alongside the affiliated groups.

The Syrian regime forces targeted homes in Khan Al- Shieh camp in Damascus Suburb by anti- Shelka weapon causing material damages.

A state of tension and fear prevailed among the residents due to the continuous shelling with explosive barrels and mortar shells that resulted in many casualties and injuries among civilians.

Meanwhile, all roads connecting the camp and the neighboring regions are still closed except (Zakya - Khan Al- Shieh) road.

In a different context, human rights activists talked about a female detainee released from one of the security branches known as "Palestine Branch" who witnessed that there are female detainees in the branch on 7 November 2015.

The detainees are: the Palestinian refugee "Amani Mohammed Hassan," from Sahnaya area in Damascus suburb, "Abeer Kassab Abu Khalifa "and her brother" Ibrahim "from the Yarmouk camp, "Safa Abu Abed "from Daraa camp, 60- year- old, "Aisha Mohammed "and her mother" Raheemah " who were arrested while returning from Lebanon, and " Rima SaleemMasria".

The newspaper revealed that a detainee was released from Palestine Branch reported that the Palestinian refugee" Amina Om Shash, "a nurse from Khan Al- Shieh camp was transferred to Adra prison in Damascus suburb.

The Palestinian Syrian refugee women are suffering during the events of war as others, since the Palestinian community in Syria was divided between 51% males and 49% females; she is the mother, sister, wife and therefore the widow and the missed or detainee's wife or the detainee under the events of the war in Syria.

Statistics of AGPS pointed out that 414 Palestinian female victims died due to shelling, sniping, and torture in Syrian prisons spread over all the Syrian area, as well as the group documented the names of 68 detainees in Syrian prisons in which the Syrian security still hiding their fate.

The female Palestinian refugee witnessed all forms of torture in the Syrian regime's prisons. The group quoted a testimony for a Palestinian detainee reflecting the "criminal" practices of the Syrian security members with women in general and Palestinian women in particular starting from electrocution stealth, beating with whips, metal sticks and being raped for more than ten times daily by different officers and jailers and to be pregnant then to abort as a result of beating.

AGPS documented the names of 35 Palestinian refugees who died under torture in the Syrian prisons; some of them were identified through the leaked images of the victims of torture, in addition to 37 Palestinian refugees were missed in and outside the Syrian territories. A number of released said that they saw a number of missed Palestinian refugees in the Syrian prisons including children.

Displacement and immigration from the Palestinian camps represents a significant burden on the Palestinian family in general and women in particular.

Hundreds of families lost the only provider either by bombing, arrest, or death under torture. Women remained lonely now to face the difficult reality from the house rent to secure food with high prices in addition to the security tension in most outside and inside regions of Syria.

As well as, the migration of young Palestinians from Syria represented a significant imbalance in the Palestinian society in which spinsterhood rose among them which increased the burden of the Palestinian refugee.

Activists pointed out that among the Syrian Palestinian refugees in Lebanon whom their number is about 45,000 there are about 3360 families in which women are the provider after of the loss of the husband.

As well as, AGPS documented 18 Palestinian refugees drowned during their way to the European countries to escape from the war in Syria.

It is mentioned that the customs and traditions in some segments of the Palestinian society such as fear of contamination their reputation or "scandal" prevented many of the families to report about the disappearance of their daughters abducting, or assaulting them by someone from the conflicting parties in Syria making the documented numbers approximate.
