VICTIMS

The Regime's artillery positioned on Al-Kabousiya hill targeted a funereal in Khan Eshieh camp yesterday and killed "Ibrahim Mahmoud Mofleh Al-Kabiri" and injured others. The AGPS' correspondent assured that the military bombarded the Eastern Cemetery of the camp while civilians were burying "Zuhir Ghazi Faour" who died earlier.

A state of anger and discontent prevailed in the camp following what they called "the repeatedly deliberate targeting" by artillery and explosive barrels of the weapons-free camp residents.

The AGPS' correspondent reported bombing of the eastern side of Khan Eshieh Camp, and the fall of several shells at houses of people in the camp, which did not result in injuries among civilians.

Our reporter said a state of confusion and fear among the civilians, while army checkpoints are still cutting off all roads between the camp and the centre of the capital, Damascus. This exacerbating the living crisis and caused the loss of many medicines and foods.

In a related context, the Palestinian refugee "Mohammad Nasser Shehab" from Khan Eshieh camp were tortured to death in the Syrian regime's prisons, bringing the total number of torture victims to 344 victims, according to Statistics documented the AGPS.

RECENT UPDATES

Violent clashes broke out in the outskirts of Daraa camp between the Syrian armed opposition forces and the regime's army, on Thursday, accompanied by heavy shelling by artillery and tanks on the homes of the camp, leaving material damage.

On the other hand, day after day, the suffering of the people of Daraa camp increases as humane conditions are extremely dangerous manifested in the health and living sides, and the continuation of the water cut for a long period of time.

But in Aleppo, living conditions in Al-Nayrab camp worsen while ISIS managed to cut the supplying road to Aleppo after controlling the town of Khanasser in the southern countryside of the province of Aleppo, northern Syria, on February 22, 2016.

AGPS' correspondent reported prices increase within the camp as many stores closed its doors in order to monopolize food and other goods to sell later at higher prices, pointing out that the crisis has spread to gas stations in the camp, where those stations severely congested since the early hours of the road closure, fears of losing fuel material, accompanied by a rise in the transportation fares from the camp to the city.

The correspondent added that most of the food and vegetables, witnessed a significant rise in prices after 24 hours of closing the road, pointing out that the price of gas jar reached 7,000 SYP if any, and a kilo of tomatoes was 600 SYP, pepper 800 SYP, sugar 300 SYP, potatoes 275 SYP, while a kilo of meat 4,500 SYP, chicken 2,000 SYP, a kilo of onions 250 SYP, and parsley bundle 120 SYP, pointing out that the fruits are not available at all in the camp's markets.

Turning to Lebanon, where dozens of Palestinian refugees displaced from Syria to Lebanon, participated in the sit-in held yesterday in the Al-Qalila area south of Lebanon, to condemn the recent UNRWA policies and cuts.

The protesters demanded the agency to rescind its decisions latter of which exacerbate the suffering of the Palestinian refugees in Lebanon, especially with regard to health and education services.

It is noteworthy that more than 42,500 Palestinian refugees were displaced from Syria to Lebanon, due to the targeting and bombardment of their camps and in addition to the siege.
