Recent Updates

Clashes broke out in Al Gharraf area near to AL Raml Camp for Palestinian refugees at Latakia amid news about a number of members’ cleavage of the regular army civil Committees, which led to the spread of a state of tension between the people of the camp.

It is noteworthy that Al Raml Camp is considered one of the relatively quiet camps in Syria, where the suffering of refugees are concentrated on the economic side, especially with regard to unemployment and the high cost of living, and because of the spread of security checkpoints in the surroundings

In the same context, the young man Jamal Abdul Nasir Bakeir was injured by a sniper shot while returning to Al Nairab Camp in Aleppo. Meanwhile, the road that links the camp with Aleppo was closed recently as a result of snipping from AL Amereia and Al Ramousa areas. A state of careful quietness at Khan AL Sheih Camp in Damascus city, interrupted by warplanes hovering, and coincided with sporadic clashes sounds at the surrounding areas and farms.

The residents of Khan Al Sheih camp are suffering of tension security situation at the surrounding areas, which subjected the camp to shelling by missiles and explosive barrels which resulted in a number of victims and injuries.

The residents also complain of the continuous bombing and shelling of Zakia, the only road that links the camp with adjacent areas, which affected negatively on their living situation and created a number of crises such as the severe shortage of medical and food supplies due to the repeated closure of the roads that link the camp with Damascus city.

In Damascus city, about 5000 Palestinian families, who were displaced from their camps to Qudseia town, are suffering of hard living conditions due to the high prices and the spread of unemployment, in addition to the lack of income sources for most of these families. Most of the 5000 families had to rent houses with very high prices which create economic and financial crises in addition to their crises and losing their houses and properties in the Palestinian camps.

Qudseia town

In Homs, the suffering of Al Aedein Camp residents is still exacerbating due to the deteriorating security situations in the adjacent areas, and the security strict procedures imposed by the Regular Army in three entrances of the camp.

Therefore, many residents and traders expressed their anger about the periods of power cut that may reach 12 hours per day, which leads to heavy financial losses.

The residents of the camp also complain of the regular army checkpoints to prevent entry of benzene, diesel, and cooking gas to the camp.

On the other hand, the Syrian security released yesterday the young man, "Ibrahim Hanino" from Al Nairab Camp at Aleppo, after he was arrested of nearly a year, and in the related context, seventeen Palestinian Syrian refugees, were kidnapped by an unidentified group in Libya, were released the day before yesterday.

According to the testimony of a relative of the kidnapped refugees, seventeen people have been kidnapped in the city of Tripoli while trying to emigrate to European countries in search of safety and security, and added that the kidnappers had demanded ransom in exchange for their release, but the refugees families seek help from one of the known characters in the area which resulted in their release without any conditions.
